

Neighborhood NEWS

LYON GROVE ITEMS

The farmers are all through gathering and there is very little to do on the farm. A few are busy making hay.

Sunday School was well attended. Sunday school large crowd attended church at Lone Oak Sunday night. Regular prayer meeting every Wednesday night.

Mr. Young can't be out any on account of his foot, which was crippled a few days ago.

Mrs. Merritt was shopping in Durant Saturday.

Miss Rinehart was shopping in Durant Saturday.

Miss Young visited Mrs. Leon Rinehart Saturday.

Mrs. Maxwell and family will leave for our neighborhood shortly. Every one regrets to see them go.

Charles Lamance was a Durant Saturday.

Miss Ann Lamance spent the weekend at home.

Miss Daisy Moody visited Miss Jessie Sherman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Deford's visited Mrs. Sherman Sunday.

Miss Ruby Maxwell visited Miss Nellie Neal Saturday.

Mrs. Lister of this place was visited Saturday, by relatives of Blue.

FROM FULSON GROVE

The protracted meeting closed Sunday night.

Russell Harris and Melvin Terry were baptized Monday morning in the Missionary Baptist church.

Miss Bessie Spraggs and Miss Anna Dunlap visited Misses Jennie and May Dyer Sunday.

Vance Vandell and Preston Wood preached at the New Church Sunday night.

Miss Jewell Hitchcock, Julius Harris, Amy Harris and Claude Lee attended church at this place Sunday night.

Miss McCarthy and Fna Garread were present at Mrs. Will Fry's funeral at Durant Sunday afternoon.

Goldie Harris, Bessie Spraggs and Anna Dunlap were here Saturday afternoon.

Janetta Keirsey and Vallie Mae were at Fulsome Grove Sunday night.

FROM VEACH GROVE

Mr. Miles, the contractor of the new road from Durant to Blue is here with a force of men and teams. They are working on the Seely farm.

Mr. R. H. Shelton of Durant visited Mrs. J. C. Kennedy Tuesday.

Don Neely and Herbert O'Dell are on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kennedy visited Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun of Lone Oak last Sunday.

Some of the young people from the church attended Sunday School at Veach Grove Sunday afternoon.

Gertrude Kennedy spent Sunday at Seely Everett.

Mr. G. Reynolds was called at Seely, Texas. He daughter, Ethel Needham is seriously ill.

Mr. Marvin Bloodworth left for Seely last Monday.

Kate O'Dell visited Luby Neely at Seely.

Mr. James Anderson of Breckenridge, Texas is visiting his Aunt's Lee Lane this week.

The poultry show of Seely school will be held at the school house Friday, October 28th. In addition to this there will be an exhibit of the boys' pig club, girls canning and sewing clubs. All are cordially invited to attend.

ITEMS FROM BLUE

A large crowd attended prayer meeting Sunday night.

Miss Faye Steen visited home in Boswell the week-end.

Many new pupils are entering school here.

Miss Lella Renfro is visiting her friend B. D. Gilbert at the Presbyterian College in Durant.

Most of the farmer of this community have finished picking cotton. The people here are glad to see the trains going by again.

A large crowd attended the party at Mrs. Nelson's house Saturday night.

ITEMS FROM DOWNING CHAPEL

Since the last writing, Mrs. Chas. L. L. died and was buried in the cemetery. Death was due to cancer of the lungs. She is survived by her husband and six children.

On October 8th Mrs. W. C. Battles died, leaving her husband one son and one daughter. The remains were interred at Fulton cemetery.

Miss Clara and Buby Daniel visited Miss Minnie Ashley at West Okmulgee Sunday.

Ben Cartwright and Willie Airing of Pleasant Hill were here Sunday.

Dr. J. L. Reynolds
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
and Glass Fitting
Durant, Okla.
Over Corner Drug Store

SUGAR LOAF ITEMS

(Too late for last week.)

Mr. and Mrs. Darrough went home with Mr. and Mrs. Harkey from church Sunday at Matoy.

Mary Lee Wigley has been quite sick for some time and is not improving much.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaney went to Bennington Saturday.

Mrs. Hanson spent last Sunday with Mrs. Gipson.

Willie Anderson and family are spending this week in Boswell where they used to live.

Fred Wigley and Miss Jewell Darrough were married last Saturday night. We all wish them a long and happy life.

Mrs. Hollaway is on the sick list this week.

Clem Hull and Troy Reeves went across Boggy Saturday evening.

A large crowd of young folks enjoyed a nice time at H. H. Darrough's Monday night, congratulating the new married couple.

ITEMS FROM MATOY

Having fine weather; wish we had lots of cotton to pick.

W. H. Yeats of Durant was here Tuesday on business.

Ellie Tidwell went to Boswell Friday.

Frank Hull and family were in Bennington Saturday trading.

A. P. Tidwell and son, Albert went to Bennington Saturday.

J. B. Lalton attended court at Durant last week.

Jessie Cummings went to Bokchito Friday.

Ben Hull has returned from the west where he has been picking cotton, the other boys have not come in yet.

Elijah Duty and wife and Miss Orpha Harkey went to Cade Sunday afternoon.

Jim Stinger and family and Mrs. Clara Rick and children of Bentley Oklahoma visited here Saturday and Sunday.

The rural carrier from Bennington makes his daily trips here now.

Elijah Duty has been sick several days, they called the Dr. to see him Monday night.

Dr. Bristow of Westminster, Texas was here last week looking after business matters and property.

C. C. Gray is building a barn and remodeling the house where D. W. Blackburn lives.

CARROL CHAPEL

Mrs. T. J. Gipson of Sugar Loaf visited her two sisters, Mrs. S. W. Fielding and Mrs. F. G. Carter Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Miller is improving after a long spell of illness.

Little Johnnie Fielding is very sick at this writing.

Sunday School was well attended last Sunday.

Mrs. Marther Eslick and family visited relatives on Twelve-Mile Prairie Sunday.

S. W. Fielding was in the Robson community Sunday.

Misses Kate and Fannie Aldridge visited Tina Staggs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boatman visited relatives in Caddo Sunday.

Miss Annie Lee Miller attended singing Sunday evening at Mr. Bogans'.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gravitt spent Sunday at the home of Sam Perkins.

FROM OLD ALLISON

A nice crowd assembled Wednesday night last (Oct. 19) in anticipation of hearing the new preacher Rev. Hopkins, begin his series of meetings. He was delayed in Durant and therefore did not arrive at Allison until the next day; the meeting began Thursday night.

As the crowd was there on Wednesday night we had prayer meeting. The young girls are taking a very active part. Miss Parker led at our last meeting.

Mrs. Beaubien made a trip to Durant Saturday and stayed over Sunday night with Mrs. Bellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton made a business trip to Caddo Friday and returned Saturday. School has been going on some time there. The country is rough looking and like our section not very prosperous this year.

Sunday School was attended by a nice crowd and all seemed interested. We had a few visitors and enrolled one or two new names. Everyone come and lets make our Sunday School grow.

Bro. Hopkins has been giving us some splendid sermons spiced frequently with a good laugh.

Mr. Shirley and wife came in ably improved. She is able to be up.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton met Miss Ruby Day in Durant Friday and she sent her best regards to Allison people and especially to her pupils out here.

Work in general, except corn gathering is at a stand still. The land is to dry to plow and farmers seem restless.

Mrs. Viola Crowley visited her parents Saturday.

We are having a number of visitors from Cypress, Bushnell and Roberta at church.

Mr. and Mrs. Alsop returned home last week and moved in the house vacated by Mr. Lambert.

All the people who have been off at work have come in and are now ready to send children to school. School will begin next Monday. We hope to see a large number of pupils enrolled.

ITEMS FROM CADE

Dr. Lindsey's son, Clive is visiting him.

Julius Green has purchased a farm south of here and is building a new house.

There was singing at Vince Alvine's Sunday night.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols was in Caddo Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. Oscar Scott and little son W. D. are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandell left this week for western Texas where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duty visited Sunday at B. F. Caldwell's.

Misses Potty Briggs and Pinkie Duty spent Sunday at Mr. Scott's.

Miss Nora Duty spent Sunday with Mrs. Alvine.

Bert Lindsey, who left for Roswell, New Mexico a few months ago writes relatives that his health is much improved.

HAVE LAST SEASON'S HAT

CLEANED AND RE-BLOCKED
Save the Cost of a New One
ROYAL HAT WORKS
30 W. Main Durant, Okla.

SUCCESS IN BANKING

A Bank is not built in one day. It takes years of persistent and hard work together with good service and courtesy to the public. The Officers and Directors of the FIRST STATE BANK strive to make this institution first in service and business courtesy.

FIRST STATE BANK

Durant, Oklahoma

THE DURANT WEEKLY NEWS

Prayer meeting was very well attended Wednesday. Every body is invited to attend.

Brother Willis and family of Caddo attended prayer meeting here Wednesday night.

Mr. Grey and wife were shopping in Blue Saturday.

Misses Dee Aldridge is on the sick list.

Mrs. Tom Ballard left Sunday for Arkansas.

Mrs. Culpepper and family of Elm View spent Saturday evening with Miss Tennie Hayes.

Miss Mary Hayes spent Saturday night with Miss Alpha Culpepper near Elm View.

Miss Eloise Rainer of Tomlin visited Mrs. McManus Friday.

D. M. Banner and family were shopping in Durant Wednesday.

Miss Leah Culpepper of Elm View spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Pearl Hayes.

L. B. McManue has just finished building a fine cellar.

G. W. Hayes returned home Saturday from Progre, Oklahoma.

Miss Ruby Banner and brother Lesley attended the interment at Mr. Stanfords Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McManus made a special trip to Bokchito Saturday.

G. W. Hayes of this place preached at Elm View Sunday night.

A number of young people of this place attended preaching at Elm View Sunday night.

Brother Willis preached here Sunday.

Willie Green of Wade is moving near Pirtle.

D. M. Banner was in Durant Saturday.

D. M. Banner and family visited relatives in Roberta Sunday.

Grandmother Hayes seems to be improving a little.

The hard surface road is looking fine as far as it is worked.

Dr. Lindsey's son, Clive is visiting him.

Julius Green has purchased a farm south of here and is building a new house.

There was singing at Vince Alvine's Sunday night.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols was in Caddo Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. Oscar Scott and little son W. D. are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandell left this week for western Texas where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duty visited Sunday at B. F. Caldwell's.

Misses Potty Briggs and Pinkie Duty spent Sunday at Mr. Scott's.

Miss Nora Duty spent Sunday with Mrs. Alvine.

Bert Lindsey, who left for Roswell, New Mexico a few months ago writes relatives that his health is much improved.

ITEMS FROM BLUE

A large crowd attended prayer meeting Sunday night.

Miss Faye Steen visited home in Boswell the week-end.

Many new pupils are entering school here.

Miss Lella Renfro is visiting her friend B. D. Gilbert at the Presbyterian College in Durant.

Most of the farmer of this community have finished picking cotton. The people here are glad to see the trains going by again.

A large crowd attended the party at Mrs. Nelson's house Saturday night.

ITEMS FROM DOWNING CHAPEL

Since the last writing, Mrs. Chas. L. L. died and was buried in the cemetery. Death was due to cancer of the lungs. She is survived by her husband and six children.

On October 8th Mrs. W. C. Battles died, leaving her husband one son and one daughter. The remains were interred at Fulton cemetery.

Miss Clara and Buby Daniel visited Miss Minnie Ashley at West Okmulgee Sunday.

Ben Cartwright and Willie Airing of Pleasant Hill were here Sunday.

FROM OLD ALLISON

A nice crowd assembled Wednesday night last (Oct. 19) in anticipation of hearing the new preacher Rev. Hopkins, begin his series of meetings. He was delayed in Durant and therefore did not arrive at Allison until the next day; the meeting began Thursday night.

As the crowd was there on Wednesday night we had prayer meeting. The young girls are taking a very active part. Miss Parker led at our last meeting.

Mrs. Beaubien made a trip to Durant Saturday and stayed over Sunday night with Mrs. Bellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton made a business trip to Caddo Friday and returned Saturday. School has been going on some time there. The country is rough looking and like our section not very prosperous this year.

Sunday School was attended by a nice crowd and all seemed interested. We had a few visitors and enrolled one or two new names. Everyone come and lets make our Sunday School grow.

Bro. Hopkins has been giving us some splendid sermons spiced frequently with a good laugh.

Mr. Shirley and wife came in ably improved. She is able to be up.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton met Miss Ruby Day in Durant Friday and she sent her best regards to Allison people and especially to her pupils out here.

Work in general, except corn gathering is at a stand still. The land is to dry to plow and farmers seem restless.

Mrs. Viola Crowley visited her parents Saturday.

We are having a number of visitors from Cypress, Bushnell and Roberta at church.

Mr. and Mrs. Alsop returned home last week and moved in the house vacated by Mr. Lambert.

All the people who have been off at work have come in and are now ready to send children to school. School will begin next Monday. We hope to see a large number of pupils enrolled.

ITEMS FROM CADE

Dr. Lindsey's son, Clive is visiting him.

Julius Green has purchased a farm south of here and is building a new house.

There was singing at Vince Alvine's Sunday night.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols was in Caddo Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. Oscar Scott and little son W. D. are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandell left this week for western Texas where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duty visited Sunday at B. F. Caldwell's.

Misses Potty Briggs and Pinkie Duty spent Sunday at Mr. Scott's.

Miss Nora Duty spent Sunday with Mrs. Alvine.

Bert Lindsey, who left for Roswell, New Mexico a few months ago writes relatives that his health is much improved.

HAVE LAST SEASON'S HAT

CLEANED AND RE-BLOCKED
Save the Cost of a New One
ROYAL HAT WORKS
30 W. Main Durant, Okla.

SUCCESS IN BANKING

A Bank is not built in one day. It takes years of persistent and hard work together with good service and courtesy to the public. The Officers and Directors of the FIRST STATE BANK strive to make this institution first in service and business courtesy.

FIRST STATE BANK

Durant, Oklahoma

THE DURANT WEEKLY NEWS

Prayer meeting was very well attended Wednesday. Every body is invited to attend.

Brother Willis and family of Caddo attended prayer meeting here Wednesday night.

Mr. Grey and wife were shopping in Blue Saturday.

Misses Dee Aldridge is on the sick list.

Mrs. Tom Ballard left Sunday for Arkansas.

Mrs. Culpepper and family of Elm View spent Saturday evening with Miss Tennie Hayes.

Miss Mary Hayes spent Saturday night with Miss Alpha Culpepper near Elm View.

Miss Eloise Rainer of Tomlin visited Mrs. McManus Friday.

D. M. Banner and family were shopping in Durant Wednesday.

Miss Leah Culpepper of Elm View spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Pearl Hayes.

L. B. McManue has just finished building a fine cellar.

G. W. Hayes returned home Saturday from Progre, Oklahoma.

Miss Ruby Banner and brother Lesley attended the interment at Mr. Stanfords Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McManus made a special trip to Bokchito Saturday.

G. W. Hayes of this place preached at Elm View Sunday night.

A number of young people of this place attended preaching at Elm View Sunday night.

Brother Willis preached here Sunday.

Willie Green of Wade is moving near Pirtle.

D. M. Banner was in Durant Saturday.

D. M. Banner and family visited relatives in Roberta Sunday.

Grandmother Hayes seems to be improving a little.

The hard surface road is looking fine as far as it is worked.

Dr. Lindsey's son, Clive is visiting him.

Julius Green has purchased a farm south of here and is building a new house.

There was singing at Vince Alvine's Sunday night.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols was in Caddo Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. Oscar Scott and little son W. D. are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandell left this week for western Texas where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duty visited Sunday at B. F. Caldwell's.

Misses Potty Briggs and Pinkie Duty spent Sunday at Mr. Scott's.

Miss Nora Duty spent Sunday with Mrs. Alvine.

Bert Lindsey, who left for Roswell, New Mexico a few months ago writes relatives that his health is much improved.

ITEMS FROM BLUE

A large crowd attended prayer meeting Sunday night.

Miss Faye Steen visited home in Boswell the week-end.

Many new pupils are entering school here.

Miss Lella Renfro is visiting her friend B. D. Gilbert at the Presbyterian College in Durant.

Most of the farmer of this community have finished picking cotton. The people here are glad to see the trains going by again.

A large crowd attended the party at Mrs. Nelson's house Saturday night.

ITEMS FROM DOWNING CHAPEL

Since the last writing, Mrs. Chas. L. L. died and was buried in the cemetery. Death was due to cancer of the lungs. She is survived by her husband and six children.

On October 8th Mrs. W. C. Battles died, leaving her husband one son and one daughter. The remains were interred at Fulton cemetery.

Miss Clara and Buby Daniel visited Miss Minnie Ashley at West Okmulgee Sunday.

Ben Cartwright and Willie Airing of Pleasant Hill were here Sunday.

FROM OLD ALLISON

A nice crowd assembled Wednesday night last (Oct. 19) in anticipation of hearing the new preacher Rev. Hopkins, begin his series of meetings. He was delayed in Durant and therefore did not arrive at Allison until the next day; the meeting began Thursday night.

As the crowd was there on Wednesday night we had prayer meeting. The young girls are taking a very active part. Miss Parker led at our last meeting.

Mrs. Beaubien made a trip to Durant Saturday and stayed over Sunday night with Mrs. Bellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton made a business trip to Caddo Friday and returned Saturday. School has been going on some time there. The country is rough looking and like our section not very prosperous this year.

Sunday School was attended by a nice crowd and all seemed interested. We had a few visitors and enrolled one or two new names. Everyone come and lets make our Sunday School grow.

Bro. Hopkins has been giving us some splendid sermons spiced frequently with a good laugh.

Mr. Shirley and wife came in ably improved. She is able to be up.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton met Miss Ruby Day in Durant Friday and she sent her best regards to Allison people and especially to her pupils out here.

Work in general, except corn gathering is at a stand still. The land is to dry to plow and farmers seem restless.

Mrs. Viola Crowley visited her parents Saturday.

We are having a number of visitors from Cypress, Bushnell and Roberta at church.

Mr. and Mrs. Alsop returned home last week and moved in the house vacated by Mr. Lambert.

All the people who have been off at work have come in and are now ready to send children to school. School will begin next Monday. We hope to see a large number of pupils enrolled.

ITEMS FROM CADE

Dr. Lindsey's son, Clive is visiting him.

Julius Green has purchased a farm south of here and is building a new house.

There was singing at Vince Alvine's Sunday night.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols was in Caddo Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. Oscar Scott and little son W. D. are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandell left this week for western Texas where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duty visited Sunday at B. F. Caldwell's.

Misses Potty Briggs and Pinkie Duty spent Sunday at Mr. Scott's.

Miss Nora Duty spent Sunday with Mrs. Alvine.

Bert Lindsey, who left for Roswell, New Mexico a few months ago writes relatives that his health is much improved.

HAVE LAST SEASON'S HAT

CLEANED AND RE-BLOCKED
Save the Cost of a New One
ROYAL HAT WORKS
30 W. Main Durant, Okla.

SUCCESS IN BANKING

A Bank is not built in one day. It takes years of persistent and hard work together with good service and courtesy to the public. The Officers and Directors of the FIRST STATE BANK strive to make this institution first in service and business courtesy.

FIRST STATE BANK

Durant, Oklahoma

THE DURANT WEEKLY NEWS

Prayer meeting was very well attended Wednesday. Every body is invited to attend.

Brother Willis and family of Caddo attended prayer meeting here Wednesday night.

Mr. Grey and wife were shopping in Blue Saturday.

Misses Dee Aldridge is on the sick list.

Mrs. Tom Ballard left Sunday for Arkansas.

Mrs. Culpepper and family of Elm View spent Saturday evening with Miss Tennie Hayes.

Miss Mary Hayes spent Saturday night with Miss Alpha Culpepper near Elm View.

Miss Eloise Rainer of Tomlin visited Mrs. McManus Friday.

D. M. Banner and family were shopping in Durant Wednesday.

Miss Leah Culpepper of Elm View spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Pearl Hayes.

L. B. McManue has just finished building a fine cellar.

G. W. Hayes returned home Saturday from Progre, Oklahoma.

Miss Ruby Banner and brother Lesley attended the interment at Mr. Stanfords Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McManus made a special trip to Bokchito Saturday.

G. W. Hayes of this place preached at Elm View Sunday night.

A number of young people of this place attended preaching at Elm View Sunday night.

Brother Willis preached here Sunday.

Willie Green of Wade is moving near Pirtle.

D. M. Banner was in Durant Saturday.

D. M. Banner and family visited relatives in Roberta Sunday.

Grandmother Hayes seems to be improving a little.

The hard surface road is looking fine as far as it is worked.

Dr. Lindsey's son, Clive is visiting him.

Julius Green has purchased a farm south of here and is building a new house.

There was singing at Vince Alvine's Sunday night.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols was in Caddo Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. Oscar Scott and little son W. D. are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandell left this week for western Texas where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duty visited Sunday at B. F. Caldwell's.

Misses Potty Briggs and Pinkie Duty spent Sunday at Mr. Scott's.

Miss Nora Duty spent Sunday with Mrs. Alvine.

Bert Lindsey, who left for Roswell, New Mexico a few months ago writes relatives that his health is much improved.

ITEMS FROM BLUE

A large crowd attended prayer meeting Sunday night.

Miss Faye Steen visited home in Boswell the week-end.

Many new pupils are entering school here.

Miss Lella Renfro is visiting her friend B. D. Gilbert at the Presbyterian College in Durant.

Most of the farmer of this community have finished picking cotton. The people here are glad to see the trains going by again.

A large crowd attended the party at Mrs. Nelson's house Saturday night.

ITEMS FROM DOWNING CHAPEL

Since the last writing, Mrs. Chas. L. L. died and was buried in the cemetery. Death was due to cancer of the lungs. She is survived by her husband and six children.

On October 8th Mrs. W. C. Battles died, leaving her husband one son and one daughter. The remains were interred at Fulton cemetery.

Miss Clara and Buby Daniel visited Miss Minnie Ashley at West Okmulgee Sunday.

Ben Cartwright and Willie Airing of Pleasant Hill were here Sunday.

FROM OLD ALLISON

A nice crowd assembled Wednesday night last (Oct. 19) in anticipation of hearing the new preacher Rev. Hopkins, begin his series of meetings. He was delayed in Durant and therefore did not arrive at Allison until the next day; the meeting began Thursday night.

As the crowd was there on Wednesday night we had prayer meeting. The young girls are taking a very active part. Miss Parker led at our last meeting.

Mrs. Beaubien made a trip to Durant Saturday and stayed over Sunday night with Mrs. Bellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton made a business trip to Caddo Friday and returned Saturday. School has been going on some time there. The country is rough looking and like our section not very prosperous this year.

Sunday School was attended by a nice crowd and all seemed interested. We had a few visitors and enrolled one or two new names. Everyone come and lets make our Sunday School grow.

Bro. Hopkins has been giving us some splendid sermons spiced frequently with a good laugh.

Mr. Shirley and wife came in ably improved. She is able to be up.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton met Miss Ruby Day in Durant Friday and she sent her best regards to Allison people and especially to her pupils out here.

Work in general, except corn gathering is at a stand still. The land is to dry to plow and farmers seem restless.

Mrs. Viola Crowley visited her parents Saturday.

We are having a number of visitors from Cypress, Bushnell and Roberta at church.

Mr. and Mrs. Alsop returned home last week and moved in the house vacated by Mr. Lambert.

All the people who have been off at work have come in and are now ready to send children to school. School will begin next Monday. We hope to see a large number of pupils enrolled.

ITEMS FROM CADE

Dr. Lindsey's son, Clive is visiting him.

Julius Green has purchased a farm south of here and is building a new house.

There was singing at Vince Alvine's Sunday night.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols was in Caddo Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. Oscar Scott and little son W. D. are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandell left this week for western Texas where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duty visited Sunday at B. F. Caldwell's.

Misses Potty Briggs and Pinkie Duty spent Sunday at Mr. Scott's.

Miss Nora Duty spent Sunday with Mrs. Alvine.

Bert Lindsey, who left for Roswell, New Mexico a few months ago writes relatives that his health is much improved.

HAVE LAST SEASON'S HAT

CLEANED AND RE-BLOCKED
Save the Cost of a New One
ROYAL HAT WORKS
30 W. Main Durant, Okla.

SUCCESS IN BANKING

A Bank is not built in one day. It takes years of persistent and hard work together with good service and courtesy to the public. The Officers and Directors of the FIRST STATE BANK strive to make this institution first in service and business courtesy.

FIRST STATE BANK

Durant, Oklahoma

THE DURANT WEEKLY NEWS

Prayer meeting was very well attended Wednesday. Every body is invited to attend.

Brother Willis and family of Caddo attended prayer meeting here Wednesday night.

Mr. Grey and wife were shopping in Blue Saturday.

Misses Dee Aldridge is on the sick list.

Mrs. Tom Ballard left Sunday for Arkansas.

Mrs. Culpepper and family of Elm View spent Saturday evening with Miss Tennie Hayes.

Miss Mary Hayes spent Saturday night with Miss Alpha Culpepper near Elm View.

Miss Eloise Rainer of Tomlin visited Mrs. McManus Friday.

D. M. Banner and family were shopping in Durant Wednesday.

Miss Leah Culpepper of Elm View spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Pearl Hayes.

L. B. McManue has just finished building a fine cellar.

G. W. Hayes returned home Saturday from Progre, Oklahoma.

Miss Ruby Banner and brother Lesley attended the interment at Mr. Stanfords Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McManus made a special trip to Bokchito Saturday.

G. W. Hayes of this place preached at Elm View Sunday night.

A number of young people of this place attended preaching at Elm View Sunday night.

Brother Willis preached here Sunday.

Willie Green of Wade is moving near Pirtle.

D. M. Banner was in Durant Saturday.

D. M. Banner and family visited relatives in Roberta Sunday.

Grandmother Hayes seems to be improving a little.

The hard surface road is looking fine as far as it is worked.

Dr. Lindsey's son, Clive is visiting him.

Julius Green has purchased a farm south of here and is building a new house.

There was singing at Vince Alvine's Sunday night.

Mrs. J. W. Nichols was in Caddo Saturday having dental work done.

Mrs. Oscar Scott and little son W. D. are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandell left this week for western Texas where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duty visited Sunday at B. F. Caldwell's.

Misses Potty Briggs and Pinkie Duty spent Sunday at Mr. Scott's.

Miss Nora Duty spent Sunday with Mrs. Alvine.

Bert Lindsey, who left for Roswell, New Mexico a few months ago writes relatives that his health is much improved.

ITEMS FROM BLUE

A large crowd attended prayer meeting Sunday night.

Miss Faye Steen visited home in Boswell the week-end.

Many new pupils are entering school here.

Miss Lella Renfro is visiting her friend B. D. Gilbert at the Presbyterian College in Durant.

Most of the farmer of this community have finished picking cotton. The people here are glad to see the trains going by again.

A large crowd attended the party at Mrs. Nelson's house Saturday night.

ITEMS FROM DOWNING CHAPEL

Since the last writing, Mrs. Chas. L. L. died and was buried in the cemetery. Death was due to cancer of the lungs. She is survived by her husband and six children.

On October 8th Mrs. W. C. Battles died, leaving her husband one son and one daughter. The remains were interred at Fulton cemetery.

Miss Clara and Buby Daniel visited Miss Minnie Ashley at West Okmulgee Sunday.

Ben Cartwright and Willie Airing of Pleasant Hill were here Sunday.

FROM OLD ALLISON

A nice crowd assembled Wednesday night last (Oct. 19) in anticipation of hearing the new preacher Rev. Hopkins, begin his series of meetings. He was delayed in Durant and therefore did not arrive at Allison until the next day; the meeting began Thursday night.

As the crowd was there on Wednesday night we had prayer meeting. The young girls are taking a very active part. Miss Parker led at our last meeting.

Mrs. Beaubien made a trip to Durant Saturday and stayed over Sunday night with Mrs. Bellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton made a business trip to Caddo Friday and returned Saturday. School has been going on some time there. The country is rough looking and like our section not very prosperous this year.

Sunday School was attended by a nice crowd and all seemed interested. We had a few visitors and enrolled one or two new names. Everyone come and lets make our Sunday School grow.

Bro. Hopkins has been giving us some splendid sermons spiced frequently with a good laugh.

Mr. Shirley and wife came in ably improved. She is able to be up.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton met Miss Ruby Day in Durant Friday and she sent her best regards to Allison people and especially to her pupils out here.

Work in general, except corn gathering is at a stand still. The land is to dry to plow and farmers seem restless.

Mrs. Viola Crowley visited her parents Saturday.

We are having a number of visitors from Cypress, Bushnell and Roberta at church.

Mr. and Mrs. Alsop returned home last week and moved in the house vacated by Mr. Lambert.

All the people who have been off at work have come in and are now ready to send